

Written by Carolyn Bennett Fraiser
Illustrated by Simona Mulazzani

REYCRAFT BOOKS

ISBN: 9781478875970

SKU: WW-NL6135

Grade Level: 1-3 (24 pages)

Juvenile Nonfiction, History, Science & Nature,
Trees & Forests, Exploration & Discovery,
Technology, Astronautics & Space Science

MOON TREE

The Story of One Extraordinary Tree

A Junior Library Guild Gold Selection

One tree has a secret – it flew to the moon on Apollo 14. The problem is no one remembers, even NASA...until a curious third-grade girl uncovers its mystery about a boy who dreamed of flying, a trip to the moon, and the American bicentennial.

School & Library Presentations:

Storytime Reading of Moon Tree

Moon Tree History & Behind-the-Scene Stories

Moon Tree Science & Its Impact Today

Creative Ways to Tell (& Write) the Truth (ELA Workshop)

Carolyn Bennett Fraiser grew up south of Kennedy Space Center in Florida and has always been fascinated with nature and the moon. She loves to research little-known people in history and writes from her home in Brevard, North Carolina.

Book a visit at carolynbfraiser@gmail.com

For more information, visit www.CarolynBFraiser.com.